

TENNESSEE ASSOCIATION FOR THE GIFTED
2007 Conference Awards

Parent of the Year / Teacher of the Year / Jo Patterson Distinguished Service / Horizon Award

Information available for download: http://www.tag-tenn.org/nomination_07.html

Each year at the annual conference, the Tennessee Association for the Gifted recognizes an outstanding parent, an outstanding teacher, and a recipient of the Jo Patterson Distinguished Service Award. This year a new award will be given, the Horizon Award, to honor a promising, new teacher of the gifted. TAG members may nominate deserving persons for these awards. Honorees will be announced at the 28th annual TAG conference in Brentwood, September 27-28, 2007.

Please send nomination forms to Susan Lewis, 417 Royal Glen Boulevard, Murfreesboro, TN 37128. Nominations may only be submitted by a member of TAG and must be postmarked by August 31, 2007. A committee will select award honorees from the nominations received.

TAG Parent of the Year Award: As the conference location rotates to each of the grand divisions of the state, so does the award for outstanding parent. The 2007 Parent of the Year Award is available to a parent(s) of a gifted child in Middle Tennessee.

TAG Teacher of the Year Award: The award for outstanding teacher also rotates with the conference location in each of the grand divisions of the state. The 2007 Teacher of the Year Award is available to teachers of the gifted in Middle Tennessee.

TAG Horizon Award: This award is given to recognize a promising, new teacher of the gifted with fewer than five years experience in gifted education. The 2007 Horizon Award is available to teachers of the gifted in Middle Tennessee.

Jo Patterson Distinguished Service Award: This award is reserved to recognize an outstanding individual in the state of Tennessee who has made a significant contribution to the field of gifted education over an extended period of time (at least five years or more).
